

Shah Brielle's Artist Biography

From the vibrant streets of Chicago to the dazzling lights of Las Vegas, Shah Brielle's musical journey is as dynamic and diverse as her sound. Growing up on the Westside of Chicago, Shah found her passion for music in the church choir, inspired by her mother's lead performances. This early exposure to the power of music set Shah on a path to become a captivating singer, songwriter, and music director.

Shah Brielle's music is a rich blend of R&B, hip hop, inspirational soul, neosoul, pop, and world music. Influenced by iconic artists such as Brandy, Erykah Badu, and Lauryn Hill, Shah brings a unique voice and perspective to her work, creating songs that resonate deeply with her audience. Her sound is a reflection of life's rollercoaster, celebrating love and happiness alongside heartbreak and growing pains. Shah's music speaks to real-life situations and experiences, empowering and inspiring all who listen.

Shah has already made significant strides in her career, including touring internationally in Canada and winning the Las Vegas Rising Star Award at the Black Music Awards. These milestones are just the beginning for an artist with a powerful message and a genuine connection to her audience.

Her upcoming album, "MAKEDA," released in November, is a testament to her journey and the stories she wishes to share. The album explores themes of life's ups and downs, delivering a sense of empowerment and calmness. The singles and music videos for her first two releases, "Issues" and "Beck & Call", are available for streaming now; giving listeners a glimpse into the heartfelt and soulful journey that Shah has crafted.

While Shah Brielle continues to expand her musical education, her vocal prowess and songwriting skills already set her apart in the music industry. She aims to create music that connects deeply with listeners, serving as the people's diary. Her goal is to reach the hearts and souls of her audience, letting them know they are not alone in their emotions and experiences.

Shah's performances, including memorable tours in Montreal and Toronto, are a testament to her ability to connect with diverse audiences. As she continues to share her God-given talents and messages, Shah gives all the glory to God for her abilities to write and spiritually connect with people.
